

By partye prayer by contemplacyon
 To rest in quyetie lorde sende thy grace do wne
 Me to conuey that there be none obstacle
 Towarde the hyghe hyl of syon
 Within thy holy celestypall habytacle

Et introibo

And I shall entre lorde vnto thyn awtere
 Made stronge in spiryte grounded in sadnes
 For as me lemeth courage face and chere
 Reioyled ben with spyrtyuell gladnes
 My yowthe agayne renewed to his freshenesse
 Whiche of olde custume in vyces was appelled
 Tyll thyn experte gracypous goodnesse
 Hath my last ende agayne to mercy called

Confitebitur tibi in cythera

I shall be thryuen and confessed vnto the
 In thylke harpe whiche for our awter good
 Was sette and wrested at caluarye on a tree
 Whan all thy senewes were strayned on a roode
 Mary and Johan vnder the crosse stode
 With wepyng epen swoyned of tyme
 Tyll the repast of our eternall fode
 On ester morowe rose vp before pyne

Quare tristis es anima mea

O thou my soule how mayst thou heup be
 Synn crist hath bought the with his passyon
 What cause hast thou for to trouble me
 Thy lode was slayne for thy redempcyon
 Gaue he not alway to thy refection
 On thyre thursdape in fountene of wyne and brede

His owne blyssed body in consolacyon
And on good frydaye was not he for the deed

CSpera in deo

Trust in god and be ryght well certayne
Doyde of dyspayre and ambyguyte
For vnto hym I shall be shryuen agayne
My goosly Ioye agayne all aduersyte
Whiche of my chere is the felcypse
Whyle he my socour is alas whom sholde I drede
Agayne all worldly perylls and infernall pouste
H spared not his blode for me to blede

CInterpretacio misse

Vpon his heed an ampte fyrst he layth
Whiche is a sygne a token and a fygure
Outwarde shewynge grounded on the sayth
The large albe by recorde of scrpyture
Is ryghtwysnes perpetuall to endure
The longe gyrdle clenelle and chastyte
Rounde on the arme the fauon dooth assure
All sobernes knyght with humylte

The stole also stretchynge ferre on lenger
Is of doctours the aungelyke doctryne
Whaggre heretykes to stande in theyr strength
From crystes lawe neuer to declyne
Thesuble aboute with charpte to shyne
As bryght as phebus in his mydde spere
Holderth euer his cours in the ryght lyne
To frende and .oo strache out his beemes clere
